BIOGRAPHY

Kelly Williams is a senior Music Education major from New Hope, Mississippi. She discovered her passion for music as a tenth-grade clarinet player. She has accomplished many awards and obtained metals from honor bands she has participated in. She is inspired by her former directors: Erica Shirley, Adam Byers, and Tracy Blaylock. Kelly realized that her calling is to share her passion and talent with those she comes in contact. Her mission is “to let God order her steps and fellowship with her students, no matter what their future occupation may be.”

Kelly Williams is from the studio of Dr. Ginger Zingara.
